City on a Hill White is mainly focussed on old Chenin blanc vineyards from the Swartland and may include varied blended components depending on the vintage.

The 2016 vintage is from two dryland bush vine vineyards planted in 1981 (one from the Paardeberg and one West of Malmesbury) and consists of 8% Viognier from the Paardeberg.

Juice underwent spontaneous fermentation in seasoned barrels and minimal intervention followed.

The wine displays true Swartland minerality and freshness and is finely textured.
